DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species I as shown in figure 2; and

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

2. During a telephone conversation with Frank Turner on December 11, 2002 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Species I, claims 1-12. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 13-24 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hsu et al. (5,858,314) in view of Frye et al. (3,928,178).

With respect to claim 1, Hsu et al. discloses a fuel process for converting a hydrocarbon fuel which has been passed through a desulfurization unit (purifier) (col. 1, lines 14-17) and a reformer stack (fig. 3).

Hsu et al. is silent as to the structure of the desulfurization unit (purifier).

Frye et al. teaches a stacked desulfurization unit wherein temperatures are optimally controlled by the stacked formation (col. 2, lines 40-50). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to select the desulfurization means of Frye et al. for the desulfurization unit required by Hsu et al. as it is merely the selection of desulfurization means known to be effective in the art as well as providing a temperature controlled desulfurization means (purifier).

With respect to claim 2, Hsu et al. discloses wherein the vessels of the reforming stack are cylindrical and do not need connecting pipes between each vessel (fig. 3 and 4) and Frye et al. discloses wherein the vessels of the purification stack are cylindrical and do not need connecting pipes between each vessel (fig. 1).

With respect to claim 3, Hsu et al. discloses wherein the reforming stack is aligned vertically (fig. 3).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 4-12 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art neither teaches nor suggests a compact fuel processor, as claimed, wherein the reforming stack comprises a shift vessel, an autothermal reforming vessel and an anode tail gas oxidation vessel and the purification stack comprises a preferred oxidation vessel and two desulfurization vessels.
